

JRF

Hudson Research

Is it possible to work and still be poor?

Ethnicity and In-Work Poverty Workshop

UK anti-poverty policies focus on employability, labour market participation and (re)training. But for many people, in-work poverty is a day to day reality.

Join our free interactive workshop to explore ethnic minority in-work poverty in Tower Hamlets.

Delegates will:

- Discuss factors which contribute to ethnic minority in-work poverty in Tower Hamlets and possible routes out of poverty.
- Meet other interested organisations.
- Learn more about our ethnicity and in-work poverty research and let us know what issues you think we should explore.

Speakers

National expert
TBC

Michael Keating,
One Tower Hamlets

Dr. Maria Hudson

Free lunch

Networking

Who should come?

Voluntary sector organisations

Public sector bodies

Local Economic Partnerships

Trade Unions

Employers

When: Wednesday 7th March, 13:00 to 16:30

Where: The Brady Arts and Community Centre

To book your place:

Visit: <http://www.voice4change-england.co.uk/content/research>

Email: rushena@voice4change-england.co.uk

Tel: 0843 208 1252